

Is Your Patient Eligible for Hospice?

A checklist for clinicians including Emergency Department staff

General Hospice Eligibility Guidelines

Consider hospice if a patient meets 2 or more:

- | | |
|--|---|
| <input type="checkbox"/> Dependent in 2-3 of 6 ADLs | <input type="checkbox"/> 10% weight loss in 6 months |
| <input type="checkbox"/> SOB or fatigue at rest/minimal exertion D | <input type="checkbox"/> Recurrent falls with injury |
| <input type="checkbox"/> Multiple ED visits or hospitalizations | <input type="checkbox"/> Decreased tolerance in physical activity |

Diagnosis-Specific Hospice Eligibility Guidelines

Sepsis

- Hospice-eligible but not previously identified
Prognosis worsens with the following complications:
- Vasopressors
 - Mechanical ventilation
 - Hyperlactemia
 - Acute kidney injury
 - Hepatic Injury
 - Thrombocytopenia

Alzheimer's Disease and other Dementias

Consider hospice if patient meets both:

- Dependent in 3/6 ADLs
- One of these complications:meets both:
- Pneumonia
 - Recurrent UTI
 - Sepsis
 - Weight loss 10%
 - Two stage 3 or 4 pressure ulcers
 - Hip fracture
 - Swallowing difficult
 - Feeding tube decision
 - Delirium

Cancer

Consider hospice if patient meets both:

- Spend 50% of time in bed or chair during waking hours
- No longer pursuing chemotherapy and/or immunotherapy

Lung Disease

Consider hospice if patient meets both:

- Dyspnea at rest and/or with minimal exertion while on oxygen therapy
- One of these disease progressions:
- Frequent ED visits and/or hospitalizations
 - Cor pulmonale

Heart Disease

Consider hospice if patient meets all:

- NYHA Class III or IV (Fatigue, angina, or dyspnea at rest and/or with minimal exertion)
- Multiple ED visits and hospitalizations
- Not a surgical candidate

Liver Disease

Consider hospice if patient meets both:

- INR > 1.5 and serum albumin < 2.5 g/dL
- One of these complications:
- Recurrent ascites
 - Spontaneous Bacterial Peritonitis (SBP)
 - Hepatic encephalopathy
 - Variceal bleed
 - Weight loss 10%
 - HRS

Request a consult with our staff

chh-sa.com

210-614-0200